Thomas J. Diackwell, to repair frame elling, No. 603 St. Peter Street; value COMPLAINANT PAYS E. B. Grubbs States That Andrew Barlow Is Not the Man Who Robbed Him.

NOW IN THIRD WEEK

The revival meeting at Union Station Middle Methodist Church da now in its third week. The interest not only continues unabated, The interest not only continues unabated, but is spreading more and more. The pastor, the Eev. R. M. Maxey, is doing his own preaching, and his people are faithfully seconding his efforts.

This meeting seems to be a demonstration of the pastor's idea that a church and its practor should be able to do their own evangelistic work without calling in outside-ever. There have been a number of conversions, and others are being reported each night, One interesting fact in connection with the meeting is that the enversions are almost enirely among adults, and particularly men.

Married at Parsonage Mr. Carlton N. Williams and Miss Eula H. Shaw were married on Wednesday evening at the parsonage of the Union Stron Methodist Church of this city, the Rev. R. M. Maxey officialing.
